

Primary Mode of Transportation

Given Missouri’s central location, it’s not surprising that most of its visitors (82.2% during FY09) rely on their own autos for the primary mode of transportation. The percentage reporting airplane as the primary mode of transportation increased from 6.96% during FY08 to 7.26% during FY09, reversing the steady string of declines that had been occurring since FY98.

